THE WIDEMAN FAMILY in Canada AND United States

A Genealogical Record 1803 - 1955

NORMAN E. WIDEMAN, B.A.Sc.; P. Eng.
ENOCH MARTIN WIDEMAN

Introduction

Over the centuries the Weidmans have scattered throughout Europe and in the early part of the 18th century (1727-1800) quite a number emigrated to America. From "Memorials of the Huguenots" by Reverend A. Stapleton it is noted that a Mennonite in Alsace, Michael Wideman, was burned in the persecution of the Protestants in 1538.

Also from a biography of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett "The Immortal Lovers" it is noted that Robert Browning's mother was a Weidemann, daughter of a Hamburg man. Robert Browning and Elizabeth named their only son "Weidemann" who later in life became a sculptor.

Although the York County Historical Society at York, Pa., lists sixteen variants of the name, it is, generally speaking, spelled Weidman in Pennsylvania and Wideman in Canada, although on a few of the older cemetery inscriptions "Weidman" will still be found in Ontario.

In the three Volumes of "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Strassberger and Hinke a great number of Weidmans are recorded in the Ship Lists of Immigrants to Pennsylvania. These Ships Lists were begun in 1727 and continued until 1775 and were begun again in 1785 to 1808. In the first period there are three kinds of lists:

1. The Captain's list marked A.
2. The signers of the oath of allegiance marked B.
3. The signers of the oath of adjuration marked C.

The first Weidmans appear in List 10A, "A List of Passengers Imported in the ship Allen from Rotterdam, James Craiges, Master, September 11, 1729". These were Johannes Weightman and Maria Phillis Whitman (apparently his wife). It must be kept in mind that this was an English Captain's list and he recorded and spelled the names as they sounded to him.

However, the Ship's List in which we are particularly interested, is List 30A "Captain's List of the passengers imported in the ship "Elizabeth", Captain Edward Lee Qualified Aug. 27, 1733." A photostat copy of List 30B was obtained at the State Archives, Harrisburg, Pa., on Sept. 19, 1952. This list shows the actual signatures of the ship's passengers.

Using the List 30A in conjunction with various Histories in Pennsylvania, notably "History of Lancaster Co.", "Biographical Annals of Lebanon Co.", "History of Berks Co." and also various volumes of "The Pennsylvania German Society" the History of the Wideman Family may be traced from Aug. 27, 1733, when Mathias Martin and his family arrived in Philadelphia, Pa., up to the present day. The family is scattered now throughout most of the U.S.A. and Canada, but notably in the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, California, New York and in the provinces of Ontario and Alberta.

Some histories claim that the Weidmans in List 30A emigrated from Durlach, Baden, Germany, while others state that they were probably Swiss. The statement has been made by descendants of Rev. Henry Wideman, the first in Ontario, that although the Weidmans all spoke German none of them had originated in Germany. It seems probable that originally they were Swiss but when they left Switzerland, fled to the Palatinate and thence to Pennsylvania. However, a number of Weidmans were members of the Lutheran Church in Pennsylvania and it is from these church records that a great deal of data were obtained.

Most of the information for this book was obtained from various families both in Canada and in the United States and to these people the author is indebted. Family Bibles have been an accurate source of information and it seems most unfortunate that the custom of listing births, marriages and deaths in these Bibles is fast disappearing.

Mr. Ezra E. Eby in his "History of Waterloo County" states that Martin Weidman came to America in 1733 and his family consisted of three sons, Christopher, Jacob and Sebastian and a daughter who was married to John Weachter.

However, our research in Pennsylvania shows that there were two Martin Weidmans, father and son, and that Mathias Martin Weidman, 1677-1745, whose signature appears on Ships List 30B, arrived in Philadelphia in August, 1733, with his sons Mathew Martin (1699-1770), John (1718-), Mathias (Sebastian? 1727-1790) and his daughter, Elizabeth (1719-), who married Adam Hauseilder.

Mathew Martin Weidman, the son, had a family of nine children, namely Christopher (1725-1794), Wendell (1730-), Elizabeth (1731-1733) who died during the voyage to America, Maria Elizabeth (1733-), Mathias (1735-), Jacob (1736-1802), who married Barbara Hoover, Maria Magdalena (1738-), Maria Barbara 1741-) and Catherine (1746-) who married John Weachter.

Mrs. James M. Bigelow of Canisteo, Steuben County, New York, in a letter dated January 24, 1909, to Mr. John L. Wideman of St. Jacobs, Ontario, stated that Sebastian and Martin Weidman were brothers from Switzerland according to "A History of the Revolution", but Mrs. Bigelow does not state its author and we have been unable to trace this particular History.

Ezra E. Eby states that Rev. Henry Wideman, the first to come to Canada, was a son of John and a grandson of Sebastian Weidman, but we believe that Rev. Henry Wideman was the eldest son of Sebastian.

We do know from Sebastian's will, dated January 5, 1789, and probated June 7, 1790, that his eldest son was a Henry, his second son was Jacob and his third son was Johannes. From other sources, we learned that Sebastian had also three daughters, Barbara, Margaret and Anna Mary. At his death, Sebastian owned 192 acres of order # 9270 3-30-72 Woodward $7.50

land at the Forks of Codorus Creek on the west side of the Susquehanna River in York County, Pa., but we have been unable to find his tombstone in York County, Pa. "Sebastian Weidman" as such does not appear in any of the Ships Lists, but professional genealogists in York, Pa., are inclined to believe that Mathias Weidman born 1727, son of Mathias Martin 1677-1745, and brother of Mathew Martin 1699-1770 was Mathias Sebastian Wideman. If this be correct, then Rev. Henry Wideman, born 1757, was a son and not a grandson of Sebastian's. We wish to point out our reasoning in this matter since some future generation may find proof of the relationship and it may not be in agreement with our research.

A literal translation of Sebastian's will is included in Part III of this book.

In "History of the Mennonites" by D. K. Cassell, "Heinrich Weitman" is noted as the first Mennonite Minister in Canada, but we have been unable to learn where he was ordained.

Philip Wideman 1749-1833 with his wife Anna Sara Langin (Sarah Long) 1759-1805 with two sons, Ludwig 1781-1837, Philip 1794-1869 and two daughters, Sarah and Maria Magdalena 1800-1855 arrived in Markham Twp. in 1805 and were some of the first settlers of Ringwood, north of the Town of Markham. They were from Northampton County, Pennsylvania. The father of Philip Sr. was Jacob Henry Weidman 1720-1793 who came to Philadelphia in Ship "William" on October 31, 1737. Philip undoubtedly was related to Reverend Henry Wideman but we do not know this relationship.

There are also three brothers, Howard, John and Maurice Wideman in Guelph, Ontario, but their grandfather came from Hamburg, Germany, in comparatively recent times.

This book, therefore, has been laid out in three Parts since we believe, in doing so, it will be less confusing to the reader.

Part I starts with Reverend Henry Wideman, born 1757, died 1810, and who came to Markham Twp., York County, Ontario, in 1803 from Bucks County, Pa. His descendants are listed in nine chapters in Part I.

Part II starts with Philip Wideman, born 1749, died 1833, and who came to Markham Twp. in 1805 from Northampton County, Pa. A short history of his brothers and sisters is also included. A great deal more research must be done on Philip's descendants to complete Part II.

Part III starts with Isaac Weidman of Durlach, Germany, and covers only briefly his descendants in Pennsylvania. Isaac Weidman was Reverend Henry Wideman's great-grandfather.

Part One

Some histories state that Reverend Henry Wideman, 1757-1810, lived in Bucks County and that his children were born there He left Bucks County, Pa., on May 16, 1803, and arrived on the 8th Concession, Markham Twp., August 1, 1803.

We believe that five sons, six daughters and Rev. Henry's wife as well as her parents arrived at this time. Rev. Henry's wife was Catharine VanHoben, 1759-1834, and her parents were Jacob VanHoben, 1721-1806, and Margaret VanHoben, 1731-1826. In Volume I of "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Strassburger and Hinke, Peter VonHoben is listed in List 265C as arriving at Philadelphia in the ship "Hamilton" and as qualifying on October 6, 1767.

In an Order-In-Council dated October 4, 1803, Reverend Henry Wideman was granted a lease to Lot 24, Concession 8, Markham Twp., York County. He was the first regular ordained Mennonite Minister in Canada. His death on June 24, 1810 was caused by a falling tree while he was engaged in clearing the land on the 8th Concession of Markham.

Christian, 1782-1848, Rev. Henry's second son was married to Mary Kauffman and resided in Bucks County until 1805 when he moved to Markham Twp. He obtained a grant to Lot 24, Concession 8, Markham Twp., from the Crown in July, 1829.

It is likely, also, that other children of Rev. Henry's were married before coming to Ontario. Anne Wideman, 1779-1809, was married to Joseph Heise, 1772-1841; Jacob Wideman, 1780-1850?, was married to Barbara Lichty, 1781-1855, and Catharine Wideman, 1781-1809, was married to Henry Shank.

There is only one child, John, of Rev. Henry Wideman of which we have no record and it is quite possible he remained in Pennsylvania since we have found no tombstone in either the Wideman or Dixon Hill Cemetery in Markham Twp.

Part I, Chapters one to nine, lists the descendants of Rev. Henry Wideman and his wife Catharine VanHoben. Although Rev. Henry was the 1st generation of Widemans in Canada, we have listed Rev. Henry as of the 4th generation since we have records of Rev. Henry's great-grandfather Isaac who therefore appears as the 1st generation.

CHAPTER ONE lists the descendants of Anne VanHoben Wideman and Joseph Heise but it is far from complete.

CHAPTER TWO lists the descendants of Jacob VanHoben Wideman and Barbara Lichty. Jacob was the only son of Rev. Henry's to move to Waterloo County from Markham and his numerous descendants make Chapter Two one of the largest. In it will be found the Martins, Brubachers, Baumans, Gingerichs, Kauffmans, Freys, Shoemakers, Snyders, Ebys and Erbs. Jacob's descendants have also settled in Hay Twp., Huron County, Ont.; Huron County, Michigan; Osceola County, Iowa; State of Oregon and Province of Alberta.

CHAPTER THREE is lacking in information on the descendants, if any, of Catharine VanHoben Wideman and Henry Shank.

CHAPTER FOUR lists the descendants of Christian VanHoben Wideman and Marie Kauffman. The Markham Twp. names of Heise, Hoover, Pipher, Barkey, Burkholder, Lehman, Miller, Hare, Raymer, Meyer appear in this chapter.

CHAPTER FIVE lists the descendants of Lydia VanHoben Wideman and Michael Eby.

CHAPTER SIX lists the descendants of Barbara VanHoben Wideman and Michael Shank. Some records state that they had twelve daughters and two sons while others show only ten daughters and two sons.

CHAPTER SEVEN lists the descendants of Rev. Adam VanHoben Wideman and Elizabeth Sherk (Schoerg) who had six sons and four daughters. Here again the names so well known in York County appear — Hoover, Brillinger, Burkholder, Gayman Meyer, Reesor, Heise, Lehman and Detweiler.

CHAPTER EIGHT is incomplete on the descendants of Elizabeth VanHoben Wideman and Joseph Sherk (Schoerg).

CHAPTER NINE—Henry VanHoben Wideman and Elizabeth Hoover (Huber) had four sons and five daughters whose descendants reside in Markham Twp., Toronto, Stouffville, Province of Alberta and States of Minnesota and California. The family names of Grove, Steckley, Pugh, Stouffer, Hallman, Schell, Stover, Byer and Nighswander appear frequently.

CHAPTER ONE

The Descendants of
Anne Wideman, 1779-1809
and
Joseph Heise, 1772-1841

Joseph Heise married (2nd) Magdalene Troyer, 1780-1851.

For this family the reader may refer to "This Heisey Family in America' by M. L. Heisey.

The Heise Family

There are a number of variations in the spelling of this family name, some of which are Heisey, Hisey.
Three sons and one daughter of John Heise and Barbara Yordy of Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, came to Ontario in 1804-1805.

One son, Christian Heise was the first deacon of the Tunker Church, organized in 1808. He settled on Lot 33 on 3rd Concession of Markham. Christian died in 1830 and his first wife, Fanny Meyer, died in 1814. Fanny Meyer was one of the first to be buried in Heise Hill Cemetery, Gormley Markham Twp. Christian Heise married (2nd) Mary Keefer.

The second son, Jacob, bought 200 acres in Lot 26, Concession 3, Markham Twp., from John Kennedy for one thousand dollars. Jacob was born in 1761 and died in 1832. His wife, Hannah, was born in 1768 and died in 1846.

The third son, Joseph, bought Lot 26 on 8th Concession of Markham Twp. from Alexander Woods on May 10, 1806, for one hundred and twenty-five pounds. Joseph married Anne Wideman who was born in 1779 and who was the first child of Rev. Henry Wideman and his wife Catherine VanHoben. Anne Wideman died in 1809 and Joseph Heise married (2nd) Magdalene Troyer, born 1780 died 1851. Joseph Heise was born in 1772 and died in 1841. Joseph Heise's and Anne Wideman's only child was John W. Heise, born 1806 died 1847.

The one daughter, Magdalene of John and Barbara (Yordy) Heise, married Christian Steckley.

See "The Heisey Family in America" by Martin Luther Heisey, Lancaster, Pa., 1941.

ISSUE I

JOHN HEISE (1806 - March 16, 1847)

ELIZABETH SNIDER (1811 - May 29, 1846)

John Heise and his wife Elizabeth bought the east half of Lot 23, Concession 5, York, in 1841 at the price of £200. Both are buried in Wideman Cemetery, Markham Twp.

The Snider Family

According to Mr. Allan Smith of Edgeley and to Mr. George Cober of Gormley, Samuel Snider and his wife Mary Nell of York had a family of twelve children. We have a record of some of these children as follows:

Henry Snider, born Jan. 10, 1807; died Sept. 24, 1876; married Oct. 19, 1830; Mary Shunk (or Shank) born May, 1812; died July 24, 1899. Both buried Edgeley.
See Chapter Six.

Jacob Snider, born Nov. 1808; died Aug. 16, 1842; married Aug. 19, 1834, Fanny Shunk (or Shank) born Sept. 1814; died Oct. 7, 1868. Both buried Edgeley.
See Chapter Six.

Elizabeth Snider, born 1811; died May 29, 1846; married John Heise born 1806; died March 16, 1847. Both buried Wideman Cemetery, Markham Twp.

Names of some of the other twelve children are: Susan, John, Samuel, Abraham, Mary and Catharine Snider.

CHAPTER TWO

The Descendants of
Jacob (VanHoben) Wideman
and
Barbara Lichty

Jacob Wideman, eldest son of Rev. Henry Wideman and Catherine VanHoben, was born in Pennsylvania about 1780 and arrived in Markham Twp., York Co., Ontario with his wife, Barbara Lichty, in 1803. In an Order-In-Council dated Nov. 1, 1803, a lease was granted to Jacob Wideman for Lot 12, Concession 8, Markham Twp., York County (see Ontario Archives, Queens Park, Toronto). Jacob later moved to Pickering Twp., York County and finally to Woolwich Township, Waterloo County. He was the ancestor of this branch of the family in Waterloo County. His family consisted of four sons and three daughters as follows: Christian, Jacob, Johannes, Henry, Catherine, Annie and Sarah (Sallie). The eldest son, Christian, married to Esther Oyer (Eyer) remained in Pickering and Markham Townships and his daughter Annie, married to John Lehman resided in Markham Township. Two of Jacob's sons, Jacob and Henry, settled in Hay Township, Huron County, Ontario and one of his sons, John, and two of his daughters, Catherine and Sarah (Sallie), settled in Waterloo County, Ontario. Jacob Wideman died about 1850-1860 and is buried in the Martin Mennonite Cemetery, two miles north of the City of Waterloo.

The Lichty Family

Jacob Wideman's wife, Barbara Lichty, was born in 1781 in Pennsylvania and died Oct. 15, 1855. She is buried in the Martin Mennonite Cemetery north of the City of Waterloo.

According to Ezra E. Eby's "History of Waterloo County" the Lichtys were natives of Switzerland and one branch settled in Penn Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Descendants of this branch moved to Waterloo County, Ontario, in 1822.

In "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Strassburger and Hincke, Volume I, Christian Lichte and Catrina Lichte appear in List 49A "A List of People of the ship 'Charming Nancy' of London, Charles Stedman, Master, from Rotterdam but last from Plymouth as by clearance thence". Qualified the 8th day of October, 1737.

A great number of descendants of this Lichte (Lichty) family reside in Waterloo County to-day.

Mr. Enoch Wideman of Hawkesville, Ontario, a descendant of Jacob and Barbara Wideman, has supplied most of the information for this Chapter and only with his assistance has this Book been made possible.

ISSUE I

Christian (Lichty) Wideman, 1810-1884
Esther Oyer (Eyer), 1814-1871

Christian Wideman was born July 3, 1810, and died Dec. 28, 1884. He married Esther Oyer (Eyer) in 1833. Witnesses were Daniel Lemon and Barbara Wideman, the marriage ceremony being performed by Rev. William Jenkins, Presbyterian Minister of Richmond Hill. (See Papers and Records — Vol XXVII — Ontario Historical Society). Christian Wideman farmed 80 acres in Lot 32, Concession 3, Pickering Twp., York County.

The Eyer Family

Christian Wideman's wife, Esther Oyer, was born in April, 1814, and died Dec. 10, 1871. She was the daughter of John Eyer who was born in Pennsylvania in 1778 and who died in Pickering Twp. in 1845. John Eyer bought 400 acres of land in Pickering Twp. from Rev. George Stuart, Archdeacon of Kingston who originally received it from the Crown. (See "History of Cherrywood" by George Cober).

To date, we have been unable to trace any descendants of Christian Wideman, 1800-1884, and Esther Eyer, 1814-1871. They are both buried in the Wideman Mennonite Cemetery, north of the Town of Markham.

ISSUE II

Jacob (Lichty) Wideman, Feb. 24, 1814 - June 24, 1882
Mary Ann Cook, March 11, 1812 - July 23, 1875

Jacob Wideman farmed near Zurich, Hay Township, Huron County, Ontario and he and his wife and one son, John, are buried in the Mennonite Cemetery, three miles south of Zurich on the Goshen Line. They had eight children, Fannie, John, Peter, Simeon, Joseph, Sarah, Henry and Mary Ann. Peter Wideman moved to Michigan in 1883 or 1884 and we believe his sisters and his brothers probably also moved at this time, since we have found their descendants in Michigan. To date, we have little information on Simeon, Sarah and Mary Ann, who moved to Kansas City, Missouri from Michigan. Mrs. Clinton Wideman of Davison, Michigan has supplied all the information for Issues 2 and 4 of this Chapter.

Mary Ann Cook first married at Markham on Dec. 29, 1829 Samuel Lehman, born 1807, died 1836. Rev. William Jenkins, Presbyterian Minister of Richmond Hill, officiated. There were three children, Daniel, William and Abraham and Daniel Lehman was ordained minister of Mennonite Church Sept. 22, 1861 and preached at Hay (Zurich). He moved to Tuscola County, Michigan where his descendants still reside. See "Lehman Family" under Chapter Four, Issue IV.

ISSUE III

Johannes (Lichty) Wideman, 1817 - 1856
Susannah Brandt 1824 - 1914

John (Johannes) Wideman, the third child of Jacob and Barbara (Lichty) Wideman was born Nov. 13, 1817 in Pickering Twp., York County and died Nov. 4, 1856 in Woolwich Twp., Waterloo County. On April 25, 1843, he married Susannah Brandt, daughter of Michael and Elizabeth (Kreuter) Brandt. Susannah Brandt was born March 1st, 1825 in Berlin (now Kitchener), Ontario.

Shortly after their marriage they moved to Wilmot Twp., near Mannheim and thence to Woolwich Twp., a little north-west of the Conestoga Mennonite Meeting House.

Susannah Brandt married (2nd) Joseph Kinzinger. She died in 1914.

John and Susannah (Brandt) Wideman's family consisted of six sons and three daughters as follows:—Christian, Menno, Truman, Elizabeth, Abraham, John, Susannah, David and Barbara. John and Susannah Wideman's descendants are by far the most numerous of the Waterloo branch of the family and most of these descendants have remained in Waterloo County although some have moved to other parts of Ontario, to the Province of Alberta and to the states of Florida, Ohio, Michigan, Oregon and California.

				married Dec. 21, 1847, Henry Lichty Wideman (1820-1897) and settled on a farm near Dashwood, Hay Twp., Huron County, Ont. They had a family of seven children.
				All seven children of Henry Wideman and Barbara Eby moved to Berne, Michigan. Probably Barbara (Eby) Wideman also moved to Berne after her husband's death in 1897.
				Also it will be noted that some of the family names in Michigan have retained their original spelling—e.g. STOECKLE (Steckley); BORKHOLDER (Burkholder) and WEIDMAN (Wideman). (See "History of Waterloo County" by E. E. Eby). (See "A Brief History of the Mennonites in Ontario" by L. J. Burkholder.
				Descendants of Elias Eby Wideman, Sept. 14, 1855-Oct. 6, 1942, and Polly Martin, Nov. 28, 1854-July 21, 1922.
				These descendants spell their name "Weidman".

CHAPTER THREE

Catharine Wideman 1781? - 1809?
and
Henry Shank

Catharine Wideman, wife of Henry Shank, is buried at Dicksons Hill Cemetery, Markham Twp. The dates on the tombstone are not clear. We have no further information on this family.

It is possible that Henry Shank was a brother of Michael Shank who married Barbara Wideman (Chapter Six).

CHAPTER FOUR

The Descendants of
Christian Van Hoben Wideman
and
Maria Kauffman

Christian Wideman was born in Bucks County, Pa., in 1782 and married Maria Kauffman, born July 31, 1781. They resided in Bucks County until 1805 when they moved to Canada and settled in Markham Twp., York County, near his father's place. He received a grant of land, Lot 24, Con. 8, Markham Twp. from the Crown in July, 1829. Christian died March 20, 1848, and his wife died April 28, 1872. Both are buried in Wideman Mennonite Cemetery. See Ontario Archives, Queens Park, Toronto.

The Kauffman Family

The Waterloo County Kauffmans are descended from Michael Kauffman, a native of Greenstadt, Hesse on the upper Rhine, who emigrated to America between the years of 1710 and 1719 and settled in Lancaster County, Pa.

We believe that Maria Kauffman who married Christian Van Hoben Wideman was the great-granddaughter of Michael Kauffman.

ISSUE IV

Henry Kauffman Wideman, Jan. 6, 1810 - Dec. 15, 1871, and
(1) Elisabeth Lehman, July 15, 1810 - Oct. 9, 1842
(2) Susannah Lehman, Nov. 26, 1825 - Jan. 23, 1899

Henry Wideman married (1) on March 1, 1831, Elisabeth Lehman, who we believe was a daughter of John Lehman, 1773 - 1833, and Hannah Sullivan, 1774 - 1848. Henry Wideman married (2) March 7, 1843, Susannah Lehman a daughter of Abraham Lehman, 1785 - 1859, and Susannah Ramer, 1789 - 1866. Elisabeth and Susannah Lehman were first cousins. Henry Wideman farmed in Markham Twp.

The Lehman Family

We believe two brothers, Abraham and John Lehman, came to Markham Twp. in 1827 from Lancaster County, Penna. Abraham, 1785 - 1859, and his wife Susannah Ramer, 1789 - 1866, daughter of Abraham and Magdalena (Grove) Ramer, are buried in Dixons Hill Cemetery. Their children were Anna, 1808 - 1861, married to Christian Hoover, 1798 - 1885; Jacob, 1812 - 1878, married to Anna Machlen, 1812 - 1871; John R., 1818 - 1861, married to Maria Stickley, 1824 - 1911; Peter married Christina Heise; Abraham, 1824 - 1900, married Fannie Barkey, 1827 - 1905; Susannah, 1825 - 1899, married Henry Wideman, 1810 - 1871; Samuel, 1829 - 1885, and Daniel R., 1830 - ——, married Catharine Kendrick. John Lehman, 1773 - 1833, brother of Abraham, and his wife Hannah Sullivan, born 1774 in West Virginia, died 1848, we believe had the following children: Abraham, 1797 - 1829, married to Catharine ————, 1801 - 1861; Jacob, 1803 - 1880, married to (1) Anna Wideman (see Chapter 4, Issue 5); Anna, 1805 - 1846, married to Andrew Wideman, 1805 - 1868 (see Chapter 4, Issue 1); and Elizabeth, 1810 - 1842, married to Henry Wideman, 1810 - 1871.

Another Abraham Lehman came to Markham Twp. in 1825 or 1826 from Lancaster County, Penna., and died in 1827. Abraham and his wife Mary, 1778 - 1864, are buried in Wideman Cemetery. We believe his children were Daniel, 1805 - 1867, married to Susannah Byer, 1818 - 1883; Samuel, 1807 - 1836, married to Mary Ann Cook, 1812 - 1875 (who married (2) Jacob Wideman, 1814 - 1882; see Chapter 2, Issue 2) and John married to Anna Wideman (see Chapter 2, Issue 6).

Mary Wideman, Nov. 9, 1832 - May 15, 1834.

Descendants of Catharine Wideman, Nov. 25, 1836 - May 1, 1872, and Abraham G. Burkholder, 1829 - 1910.

They were married in 1853. Abraham G. Burkholder was the son of Daniel Burkholder, 1795 - 1871, and Barbara Grove, 1802 - 1882, the first Burkholders to come to Markham Twp.

ISSUE V

Anna Wideman, 1804? - 1824?,
and Jacob Lehman, 1803 - 1880.
No Descendants.

Mrs. Tillman Nighswander (Mary Lehman, 1858-1954, daughter of Jacob K. Lehman, 1830-1916, and Sarah Clark, 1835-1920) informed us on April 20, 1954, that her grandfather, Jacob Lehman, 1803?-1880?, married (1) Anna Wideman, married (2) Anna? Kreider, 1808-1851, and married (3) Barbara? Shrigley, 1815-1887?. Anna Wideman died without children and all of Jacob Lehmans children were by his second wife, Anna? Kryder, 1808-1851, namely:

1. Mary Lehman, 1826-1915; married Geard Seebeck, 1803-1874.
2. Daniel Lehman; married Sarah Rusnell.
3. Jacob K. Lehman, 1830-1906; married Sarah Clark, 1835-1920.

4. Ephraim Lehman, 1832-1913; married (1) Elizabeth ————, 1836-1873, married (2) Mary Ann ————, 1838-1892, married (3) Catherine Stover, 1850-1928.

5. Joseph Lehman; married Sarah Boadway.

6. Samuel Lehman, 1835-1841.

7. David Lehman.

8. Elizabeth Lehman, 1840-1844.

9. John Lehman, 1844-1844.

10. Benjamin Lehman, 1845-1919; married Christina Stouffer, 1840-1920.

If this information be accurate, then Anna Wideman must have died about 1824 since the first child by the second marriage was born in 1826. Therefore, Anna Wideman was born about 1804.

There is a Jacob Lehman, 1803-1880, buried with two of his wives, Anna 1808-1851 and Barbara 1815-1887 at Altona Mennonite Cemetery and we have assumed this is the Jacob Lehman whose first wife was Anna Wideman, 1804?-1824?

There is also a Jacob Wideman, 1812-1878, buried with his wife Anna 1812-1871 at Wideman Mennonite Cemetery. Rev. Jenkin's marriage records show that Jacob Leeman (Lehman) married Sarah Ann Macklem on March 16, 1837.

We believe Jacob Lehman, 1803-1880, was a son of Johannes (John) Lehman, 1772-1833, and Hannah Sullivan, 1774-1848, and therefore, a sister of Anna Lehman, 1805-1848, who married Andrew Wideman, 1805-1868.

ISSUE VI

Christopher Kauffman Wideman, March 8, 1818 - Oct. 1, 1851, and Catherine Huber, March 1, 1819 - March 18, 1907.

Christopher Wideman after marrying in 1841 Catherine Hoover, daughter of Christian Hoover, 1784-1859, and Maria Troyer, 1789-1884, settled in Whitevale where he farmed. Christopher Wideman's Uncle Henry Wideman (1801-1883); married Elizabeth Hoover (1814-1897), a sister to Catherine Hoover.

Catherine Hoover married (2nd) Daniel Ramer (1802-1870).

See "The Hoover Family" at the beginning of Chapter Nine.

Thomas Henry 1858-1900
John W. 1859-1908

The Descendants of Lydia VanHoben Wideman and Michael Eby

We have been unable to trace this family and any information which may be supplied by our readers would be most welcome. It seems possible that there were two children, Henry and Michael Eby and we have included here what little is available at present.

Mr. Harmon Jones of Markham Twp. has been of great assistance.

CHAPTER SIX

The Descendants of Barbara VanHoben Wideman and Michael Shank

The Shank Family

This family name is spelled Schenck, Shenk and Shank.

We believe there were four brothers, John, Michael, Henry and Jacob who came from Pennsylvania to Markham Twp. John Shank (1784-1859) married Mary Magdalene Urmy (1804-1858); Michael Shank who was married to Barbara Wideman, daughter of Rev. Henry Wideman, before coming to Markham; Henry Shank was married to Catharine Wideman, daughter of Rev. Henry Wideman, also before coming to Markham Twp.; we have no record of the name of Jacob Shank's wife.

Mr. George Cober of Gormley, Ontario, states that Michael and Barbara (Wideman) Shank's children were as follows:—Catherine married Moses Climenhaga; Anna married John Heise; Fannie married Jacob Snider; Barbara married Mr. Eyer; Elizabeth; Sarah married Joseph Shaffer; Susannah married Mr. Hoover; Mary married Henry Snider; Lydia; Christina; Esther; Eve; Michael and Abraham who died young.

In "Papers and Records" of Ontario Historical Society, Volume XXVII under Marriage Records from 1819-1843 of Rev. William Jenkins, Presbyterian Minister at Richmond Hill, the places of marriage are recorded.

In all cases Rev. William Jenkins spelled the name "Shunk", although we do know from other records that the Nancy Shunk noted in Jenkin's records was Annie Shank, a daughter of Michael Shank.

From Rev. Wm. Jenkin's Marriage Records 1819-1843

Date	Place	Marriage	Witnesses
Oct. 20, 1829.	Markham	John Heisig	Jacob Shunk
		Nancy Shunk	Fanny Shunk
Jan. 21, 1830.	Vaughan	John Williams	John Hendery
		Sarah Shunk	John Shunk
Oct. 19, 1830.	Vaughan	Henry Snyder	Jacob Shunk
		Mary Shunk	Jean Shunk
Feb. 11, 1834.	Markham	James Brown	John Shunk
		Catherine Shunk	Susan Brown
Aug. 19, 1834.	Markham	Jacob Snyder	Abram Snyder
		Fanny Shunk	Eliz. Shunk
Dec. 17, 1839.	Markham	Jacob Shunk	Jacob Smith
		Susan Deedwarner	Barb. Musselman
Mar. 25, 1843.	Markham	Cresley Stover	Peter Stover
		Sally Shunk	Jacob Shunk

It would seem that some of the Shunks in Jenkin's records may have been descendants of Jacob Shunk of Vaughan Twp., while others may have been children of Michael and Barbara (Wideman) Shank.

We do know that Michael Shank was living at East Half of Lot 19, Conc. 7, Markham Twp. in February, 1834. Other records show that Michael Shank's family consisted of 10 daughters and 2 sons.

However, we have listed in Chapter Six the names of Michael and Barbara (Wideman) Shank's children as supplied by Mr. George Cober of Gormley. Obviously the order in which they appear may be in error.

CHAPTER SEVEN

The Descendants of
Adam VanHoben Wideman, 1797-1861,
and
Elizabeth Sherk, 1798-1871

Adam Wideman resided near the Mennonite Church in Almira, Ontario, and was Mennonite Minister for 25 years, being ordained in 1836 He was born Aug. 29, 1797 in Pennsylvania and died Jan. 28, 1861. Elizabeth Sherk (Sherrick) was born Dec. 22, 1798, and died Jan. 25, 1871.

The Sherk (Schoerg) Family

In "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Strassburger and Hinke, Volume 1, Page 10, (List 2A) A List of Palatyns Imported In ye ship James Goodwill, David Crockatt, Master, from Rotterdam, Sept. 27, 1727, Joseph Schurgh is listed as one man to be sworn and the number in his family is given as three. According to Mr. E. E. Eby's "History of Waterloo" Joseph's son, Joseph' also arrived at this time at Philadelphia. Joseph and Casper, grandsons of the original Joseph came to Ontario in 1800 from Franklin County, Pa., Joseph being one of the first settlers in Waterloo County.

Casper Sherk, 1766-1840, with his wife Esther Reiff (1764-1844) settled in Markham Twp. Esther Reiff, born Dec. 21, 1764, at 5:00 p.m., was a sister of Fanny Reiff who married in 1774 Christian Reesor (1747-1806). Christian Reesor and his family moved from Franklin County, Pa., to Markham Twp. in 1804. (See The Reesor Family in Canada 1950 Edition).

Joseph (1792-1861) son of Casper and Esther (Reiff) Sherk married Elizabeth Wideman (1799-1871) daughter of Rev. Henry and Catherine (VanHoben) Wideman. (See Chapter Eight.)

Elizabeth Sherk (1798-1871), daughter of Casper and Esther Sherk, married Adam Wideman (1797-1861), son of Rev. Henry and Catherine (VanHoben) Wideman and their descendants are listed in this Chapter Seven.

Daniel (Sherrick) Sherk (1841-1924), a grandson of Casper and Esther (Reiff) Sherk), married Mary Wideman (1842-1915). (See Chapter Nine, Issue IV.)

The Descendants of Henry VanHoben Wideman, 1801-1883, and Elizabeth Huber (Hoover), 1814-1897

Henry Wideman, youngest of the twelve children of Rev. Henry and Catharine (VanHoben) Wideman was born Jan. 10, 1801, and died April 7, 1883. His wife, Elizabeth Hoover, was born Feb. 16, 1814, and died Feb. 16, 1897. They farmed half mile south of Dixon's Hill in Markham Twp. on Lot 28 rear of the seventh concession where they built a cut stone house. This farm has remained in the Wideman Family for over one hundred years but was recently (1954) sold by Wesley Wideman, grandson of Henry Wideman.

The Hoover Family

Ludwig Huber (Hoover) arrived in Philadelphia on the Ship "Chance" from Rotterdam and qualified on August 8, 1764. See Vol. I, Page 689, List 242C "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Strassburger and Hinke. List 242C does not state the wife and children of Ludwig Huber but Ludwig had four sons — John 1756-1843, Martin 1760-1849, Daniel 1764-1840 and Christian. Ludwig Huber originally from Switzerland and lastly from Palatinate, Germany, settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Some histories state that three of his sons, John, Daniel and Martin came to Ontario in 1804 although John Hoover's tombstone in Heise Hill Cemetery, Gormley, Ont., states "John Hoover died 1843 aged 87 years. Elizabeth, wife of John Hoover died 1812 aged 52 years. Emigrated from Pennsylvania, United States to Canada in the year 1811." Herbert Hoover, a noted civil engineer and former President of the United States is related to this family.

Martin Hoover, 1760-1849, married to Elizabeth Shaffer had two sons, Christian, 1784-1859, and John, and we believe there was a daughter, Elizabeth. Martin Hoover was a Bishop of the Mennonite Church but he left Ontario and died in Indiana in 1849.

Christian Hoover 1784-1859, son of Martin, married Maria Troyer 1789-1884 and they had seven children as follows: David Hoover married Miss Wismer, Elizabeth Hoover 1814-1897, married Henry Wideman 1801-1883; Mary Hoover 1817-1898, married Peter Raymer 1817-1905; Catherine Hoover 1819-1907, married (1) Christopher Wideman 1818-1851, married (2) Daniel Ramer 1802-1870; Abraham Hoover 1821-1905, married Elizabeth Cook; Susannah Hoover 1825-1920, married (1) John Smith; married (2) Lewis Locke; and Sarah Hoover 1829-1909, married Jacob Snider 1830-1917.

Part Two

Jacob Henry Weidman, 1720-1793

Anna Mary

Northampton County, Pennsylvania

Part Two is devoted to descendants of Jacob Henry Wideman 1720 - 1793 and his wife Anna Mary who came to Pennsylvania in the ship "William" and qualified on the 31st October, 1737, at Philadelphia. Jacob Henry and his wife Anna Mary had seven children one of whom, Philip, with his family left Northampton County, Pa., and arrived in Markham Twp. in 1805.

Rev. Henry Wideman 1757-1810, the original to settle in Markham Twp. in 1803 and whose descendants are listed in Part I of this book lived in Bucks Co., the neighbouring County of Northampton, but we do not know what relationship existed between Rev. Henry, originally from Lancaster Co. and later from Bucks Co. and Jacob Henry from Northampton Co.

The seven children of Jacob Henry Weidman, 1720-1793, and Ann Mary were as follows:—

1. Jacob Weidman 1747-1794; unmarried.

2. Ludwig Weidman; killed in American Revolution.

3. Philip Weidman 1749-1833; married Anna Sara Langin (Anna Long) 1759-1805 and came to Markham Twp. in 1805. His children were as follows: Henry 1778-1838; Maria Barbara 1779- ; Ludwig 1781-1837; Daniel 1783- ; Johannes 1790- ; Elizabeth 1792- ; Philip 1794-1869; Catherina 1796- ; Sarah Heise 1798- ; Maria Magdalena Macklem 1800-1855. Philip was the only son of Jacob Henry Weidman to come to Canada with his wife, Anna Sara Langin, and as far as we can determine only four of his children came with him, namely: Ludwig, Philip, Sarah and Maria Magdalena. He obtained a Crown grant of land and settled at Ringwood near Markham in 1805.

4. Catharine Weidman.

5. Mary Weidman.

6. Daniel Weidman 1758-1841; married Margaret Labar. Their children were as follows:—Margaret Morley 1792-1890; Sarah Oyer; Magdalena Tresloft; Catherine Reichard; Mary Rotzell, John Weidman and Joseph Weidman 1815-1855.

7. Elizabeth Weidman married Elias Dutt.

We are greatly indebted to Mr. Earl Weidman, 1807 Spring Garden Street, Easton, Pennsylvania, and to Miss Lorna Wideman of Stouffville, Ontario, for a great deal of information on Part II.

This information was received from Mrs. Gladys (Wideman) Horn of California. However, according to a newspaper clipping in the possession of Mr. John Lunau of Markham:—

"William J. Weidman, born Jan. 9, 1869, in Whitchurch Twp., York County, came to Michigan with his parents in 1879. He enlisted in Company A when it became known that the 33rd regiment would be called into service. Pte. Wideman saw active service during Cuban campaign and participated in bombardment of Aguadores on July 1. He entered hospital at Siboney on July 22nd where he remained until Aug. 15 when he left for the United States on the Transport Catania. The remains were escorted to the home of Private Wideman's parents on Hazelton St."

The origin and date of the newspaper clipping are unknown but the Cuban campaign was fought during the Spanish-American War in 1898 so that it would seem that Pte. William J. Weidman died in August, 1898, on his return to the United States.

The Descendants of
Sarah Wideman, 1793 (or 1802) - Jan. 13, 1861,
and
Abraham Heise, Jan. 6, 1800 - April 1, 1834.

Buried Wideman Cemetery, Markham Twp.

Further research is required for this chapter. M. Luther Heisey who publish "The Heisey Family in America" in Lancaster, Penna., 1941, states on Page 107 that Abraham Heisey died April 1, 1834, aged 34 years, 2 months, 25 days; married Sarah Wideman who died Jan. 13, 1861, aged 58 years, 8 months. Since Sarah, born 1798, daughter of Philip Wideman, was the only Sarah Wideman of this period in Canada as far as we can determine we have assumed she married Abraham Heise.

Abraham Heise, born 1800 in Pennsylvania, came to Markham Twp. with his parents, Jacob, 1761-1832, and Hannah (Meyer) Heise, 1768-1846.

ISSUE I

Samuel Heise,
Martha Sherrick.

Martha Sherrick was the daughter of Jacob, 1800-1854, and Elizabeth (Steckley) Sherrick, 1798-1879, and granddaughter of Kasper, 1766-1840, and Esther (Reif) Sherrick, 1765-1844, (Schoerg).

ISSUE V

Christina Heise,

Peter Lehman.

Peter Lehman was a brother of Abraham, Daniel and Susannah Lehman and we believe his father was Abraham Lehman, 1785-1859, and his mother was Susannah Ramer, 1789-1866. Peter Lehman lived at Ellendale, Dickey County, North Dakota, U.S.A. Peter Lehman's sister, Susannah Lehman, 1825-1899, married Henry Wideman, 1810-1871. (See Part I, Chapter Four, Issue 4).

ISSUE VI

Hannah Heise. Unmarried.

Maria Magdalena Wideman, 1800 - 1855, and John Macklem, 1799 - 1877

Maria Magdalena Wideman, 1800 - 1855, and Elder John Macklem, 1799 - 1877.

Both are buried in Dixon's Hill Cemetery.

To date, we have not traced any descendants.

PART III

Since a great deal of information has been collected in Pennsylvania on the relatives and ancestors of our Reverend Henry Wideman, the first to come to Canada, we have included this information in Part III since to include it in Part I seemed to be confusing.

Mathias Martin Weidman, 1677-1745, who, with his wife Maria Catherine, born 1695 and his children Martin, John, Eliza and Mathias Sebastian, arrived in Philadelphia in August, 1733. He secured a warrant for land of 144½ acres on May 3, 1733, evidently before coming to Pennsylvania. We believe Mathias Weidman was married twice, his first wife having died in the Old Country and his son Mathew Martin, 1699-1770, being by his first wife and the other children, John, Elizabeth and Mathias Sebastian, by his second wife Maria Catherine, born in 1695. Maria Catherine, after Mathias Martin Weidman died in 1745, married John Lane.

Reference—Orphans Court Record, 1742-1760, Lancaster County. In the "History of Berks County" it is noted that the following are listed in the first census of the United States in 1790, in Cumru Twp.:

Joseph Weidman, head of family, and 3 women.

Christian Weidman, head of family, and 2 women.

Also on Page 4, original Book — Oath of Allegiance Circa 1772 Abraham Weidman's signature appears.

Part III therefore covers in three Volumes the three sons of Mathias Martin Weidman, 1677-1745, namely Mathew Martin, 1699-1770; Johannes, 1718-1790, and Mathias Sebastian, 1727-1790. We have no further information on the daughter, Eliza, of Martin Mathias Weidman although we know she was born in 1719 and married Adam Hauseilder on Oct. 17, 1743.

III Gen.—Mathew Martin Weidman, 1699-1770
Margret 1703-

Mathew Martin Whiteman, 1699-1770, his wife Margret born 1703 and his children Christopher born 1725 and Wendell born 1730 arrived in Philadelphia on the Ship Elizabeth with his father Mathius Martin and his step-mother Maria Catrina. His father, as stated, signed Lists 30A and 30B and thus qualified on Aug. 27, 1733, but Mathew Martin was too sick on arrival to sign the 30B list. One of his children, Elizabeth, born 1731 was dead on arrival.

Mathew Martin received a patent Oct. 6, 1733, from Wm. Penn for 385 acres in what is now Clay Twp., Lancaster County, for £59, 10s 6d. According to "History of Lancaster County" by Ellis and Evans, on Page 702, Martin Weidman patented in 1745, 387½ acres of land that had been surveyed in 1733 to Folandina Miller. He sold, in 1757, 172¼ acres to Abraham Brubacher. In 1766 Martin Weidman sold 214½ acres to his son Jacob Weidman who died in 1804.

Mathias Sebastian Weidman, 1727 - 1790,
Elizabeth Mumma (?)

Sebastian Weidman and his wife Elizabeth (Mumma?) settled in Hempfield Twp., Lancaster County, on a 100-acre farm which they bought in Dec. 3, 1761, from James Webb, but after selling this property on Feb. 6, 1767, to Henry Bare they moved to Codorus Twp., now in York County, where they purchased 192 acres at the Forks of Codorus Creek on the west side of the Susquehanna River.

Sebastian's will dated Jan. 5, 1789, and probated June 7, 1790, is in German Script and was written by him. It is filed in the office of the Register of Wills, Court House, York, Penn. His children were Henry, Jacob, John, Barbara, Margaret and Anna Mary. In E. E. Eby's History of Waterloo Twp., Vol. II, he states that Rev. Henry Wideman, born 1757, was a son of John and grandson of Sebastian's but we are inclined to believe that Henry, born 1757, was the eldest son of Sebastian.

Literal Translation of Sebastian Weidman's Will

Friday the 5th January 1789

Make I Sebastian Weidman my last Will, in York County Codorus Township, Province Pennsylvania. And first I bequeath to my oldest son Henry Weidman 5 shillings for his second share then he shall stand alike as the others that is share and share alike, of all my Estate, further it is my will that my second son Jacob Weidman shall have the Place (or Farm) that is my Will for Three Hundred and fifty Pounds, if he wishes to take it the 1st April but if he don't want the Place, then the Place is to be sold and shall (be reserved) for my widow Elizabeth Weidman 10 acres at the spring, near the run, and the Guardian shall build her a house and stable for 2 cows and shall clean 2 acres of meadowland for feed. If Jacob Weidman takes the land he shall have it 2 Horses, with Harness Wagon, Plow, Harrow, Shovels. Hay and dung forks and 2 chains but the one Horse must be paid by my estate and that is my Will, further it is my Will, and bequeath to my widow 2 Cows, the Beds, house utensils, Iron Kettle and other pots, and Spinning Wheel, and my Will is that Jacob Weidman shall give yearly to his Mother, Feed for 2 Cows, 12 bus. of Wheat, feed for 2 Hogs, or 100 lbs. of Pork Meat, Salt 1 bus., 10 lbs. of Hemp or Flax prepared and shall feed her 2 sheep. I bequeath her 2 sheep, he shall build her Small House, and must give her stabling for 2 Cows, or build, and if Jacob Weidman so thinks, then Johannes Weidman is to have the 10 acres, where Mother is to live on, the dwelling must be built by Jacob Weidman when she wants it, and must give her a garden, and potato patch, and must make her fire wood and haul it if he takes the place, but if he don't take the Place, then she shall have the beforesaid 10 acres, and the 3rd of the money of the sale of the land, the Guardians shall put on interest the same, but if it shall not be sufficient for her needs, then they shall take the principal for her support, and after her death be divided share and share alike among my Children, but should she marry again then it's done and out, then her Man may support her, but the furniture and one Cow she may take along. And Jacob Weidman shall have the old weaving loom and spool wheel, and Jacob Weidman shall take all debts upon himself and pay them, for that he shall be free for 3 years, then he shall pay yearly 15 pounds and Johannes Weidman shall have my weaving loom and spool wheel, and the Gearing that is my Will, I further take as Guardians Frederick Mumma and Peter Brubacher which I appoint for my wife and children is my Will. It is my last Will if Jacob Weidman takes the land, he can get a Farmer as long as needed and shall give his Mother the one third of the apples.
